FROM THE EAST

My Beloved Brethren & Ladies,

It's hard to believe that my year term as your Worshipful Master has come to a close. This has been a very exciting and productive year for North Hollywood Lodge #542.

We have visited many lodges; neighboring and away, assisted the Midnight Mission on a regular basis volunteering our time and funds, started a DeMolay Chapter, achieved 100% officer participation in the Grand Master's charity, performed several Child I.D. programs, boosted camaraderie with burger, scotch & cigar nights, bowling events and a record turnout at our Widows Sweetheart Brunch and so much more!

I must thank my officers who were always at the ready to take on any task with eagerness and enthusiasm and also those Past Masters who were there for me during the good and trying times. Special thanks to my wife, Khani Jo Zulu, who was at my side during this year and also inspired many of the lodge ladies to get involved through the ladies' letter and her regular social attendance. Though I am leaving the East, I won't be a stranger; our work is not finished. I will still attend lodge on a regular basis and offer support in any way needed. Thank you all for one of the greatest years of my life!

Upon the Square,
Zulu, Worshipful Master

ABOUT THE COVER

Lion of the Tribe of Judah

The lion is an ancient symbol of royalty. Due to its majesty and power it has long been considered the "king" of beasts. Its likeness is commonly found on the thrones and palaces of rulers. It was also associated with the sun because of its mane.

The lion was the sign of the Tribe of Judah, because this was the royal tribe of the Hebrew nation. All kings of Judah were called the "Lion of the Tribe of Judah" and this was, therefore, one of the titles of King Solomon.

In the Middle Ages, the lion was also understood as a symbol of resurrection. There were common tales that the lion cub when born lay dead for three days until breathed upon by its father and restored to life. Representations of roaring lions symbolized the resurrection of the dead on the Last Day

The Lion of the Tribe of Judah is considered as signifying a coming redeemer who would spring from the tribe, or meaning the King of Israel who built the Temple.

The lion was connected with resurrection long before the Man of Galilee walked upon the earth. In ancient Egypt, as we learn from the stone carvings on the ruins of Temples, a lion raised Osiris from a dead level to a living perpendicular by a grip of his paw; the carvings show a figure standing behind the Altar, observing the raising of the dead, with its left arm raised, forming the angle of a square.

KHANI'S 1ST LADIES' LETTER

Greetings Brethren and Ladies! This Masonic year has just flown by!

I want to thank all of you who have attended our events and who have volunteered your time and efforts to the Midnight Mission.

We must always remember the importance of giving back and of serving our communities. Helping those less fortunate than ourselves is humbling, eye opening and necessary.

Each time we volunteer our services, the appreciation from those in need, whether a nod, a smile, a hug or a "thank you", warms our hearts, satisfies our souls and lets us all know that there is hope to make a difference.

For those reasons, I will continue to do community service. I feel most passionate about my experiences and work at the Midnight Mission, and so, I plan on continuing my work there. If you are ever interested in getting more involved at that particular organization, please feel free to email me khani@zulutattoo.com or call 323-697-9861.

As Worshipful Master Zulu's wife, I have witnessed and been a part of the amazing growth of Lodge #542. It seems that this lodge has so much potential to make a difference in it's community. I am proud to have been a part of it all this year!

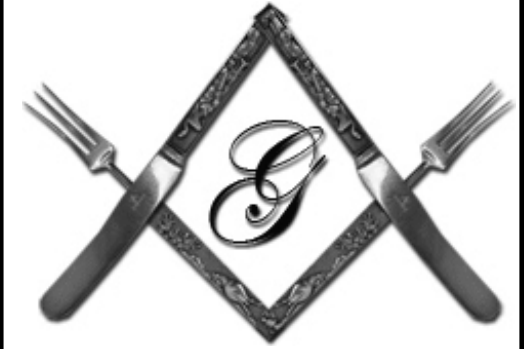

I want to leave you all with one thought to take with you in whatever journey your life takes you.....

"Be the change you want to see in the world."

~Mahatma Gandhi

Have a Happy Holiday Season and a safe and Happy New Year!!

Sincerely,
Khani Jo Zulu
