FROM THE EAST

Brethren and Ladies –

April was an exciting month at the Lodge, we started on two-month run of 2nd degrees, we will conduct a few more this month before we head into advance station practice in June. June will also bring on involvement in the Hands for Hope HopeWalk taking place across from our Lodge in the park. The HopeWalk will be a 5k walk, a Kid's Healthy Activity Fair and a Taste of North Hollywood. More information will be given in next few months Hour Glass.

Our Annual Golf Tournament is all right around the corner; keep your eyes out for more info on that as well.

Lastly, I apologize for the delay in getting the Hour Glass in the mail in a timely manner, I have had some serious computer mishaps, but all should be back to normal for June.

Thanks – Lance Huston, WM

MEET YOUR BROTHERS...

David Vancil

Brother Vancil is currently an Entered Apprentice Mason, and will be receiving his 2nd degree this month. He was born and raised in Chicago, IL and is currently a Sommelier at La Piazza in Hollywood. He has had an extensive career in the Hospitality and Beverage Service Industry. This has included four years in Waikiki, Hawaii and four years in Japan, the last two years there running his own club/bar in Kofu, Japan. Discussing the Universe, truth, and the state of man with some of his customers, he was guided to Freemasonry by a few gentlemen, whom he later discovered were Brothers.

MODESTY OF TRUE CHARACTER

We are told that in the building of Solomon's Temple there was not heard the sound of any tool of iron. This tradition, besides being borne out by the known facts of Hebrew history, has a beautiful symbolism. It is this: the erection and adornment of the moral and spiritual temple in which we are engaged, that human character, and of which Solomon's was typical, is not characterized by the clang of noisy tools. About true character, building there is nothing of bluster and show; it is a silent, noiseless process. The greatest characters in the world's history have been men of modesty; their deeds, not their words, have silently spoken for them.
